

ALKALOID AD Skopje honored with four awards: Most Transparent Listed Joint Stock Company selected by the media and by market participants, Stock of the Year, and Good ESG Practices

The Macedonian Stock Exchange awarded ALKALOID AD Skopje the prestigious awards for Most Transparent Listed Joint Stock Company selected by the media, Most Transparent Listed Joint Stock Company selected by market participants, Stock of the Year, based on the public voting poll conducted jointly by the Macedonian Stock Exchange and the Faktor portal, and the Good ESG Practices award, presented by the Macedonian Stock Exchange in collaboration with the American Chamber of Commerce in North Macedonia. The 2024 annual awards ceremony took place on December 16, 2024.

This marks the 12th time the company has received an award for Most Transparent Listed Joint Stock Company, reaffirming ALKALOID AD Skopje's dedication to upholding the highest standards of corporate governance. Transparency in operations and effective communication with all stakeholders – investors, institutions, media, and the public – are fundamental values that the company consistently upholds.

These awards reflect ALKALOID's commitment to responsible operation, as well as its successful implementation of a sustainable growth and development model. The Good ESG Practices Award acknowledges the successful incorporation of ESG standards into the company's operations and business strategies. It also reflects the trust placed in the company by all stakeholders, serving as motivation to consistently deliver outstanding results and generate lasting value for investors, the community, and future generations.

Dedicated to consistent predictability and exceptional performance, ALKALOID AD Skopje will continue to reinforce these principles in the coming years, remaining a leader in business ethics and corporate responsibility.
